

2020-2021

September

What's in a name? For one little girl, her very long name tells the vibrant story of where she came from — and who she may one day be.

October

Discover a joyful reminder of the ways that every child is unique and special.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING CREATORS OF I AM ENOUGH

GRACE BYERS

PICTURES BY KETURAH A. BOBO

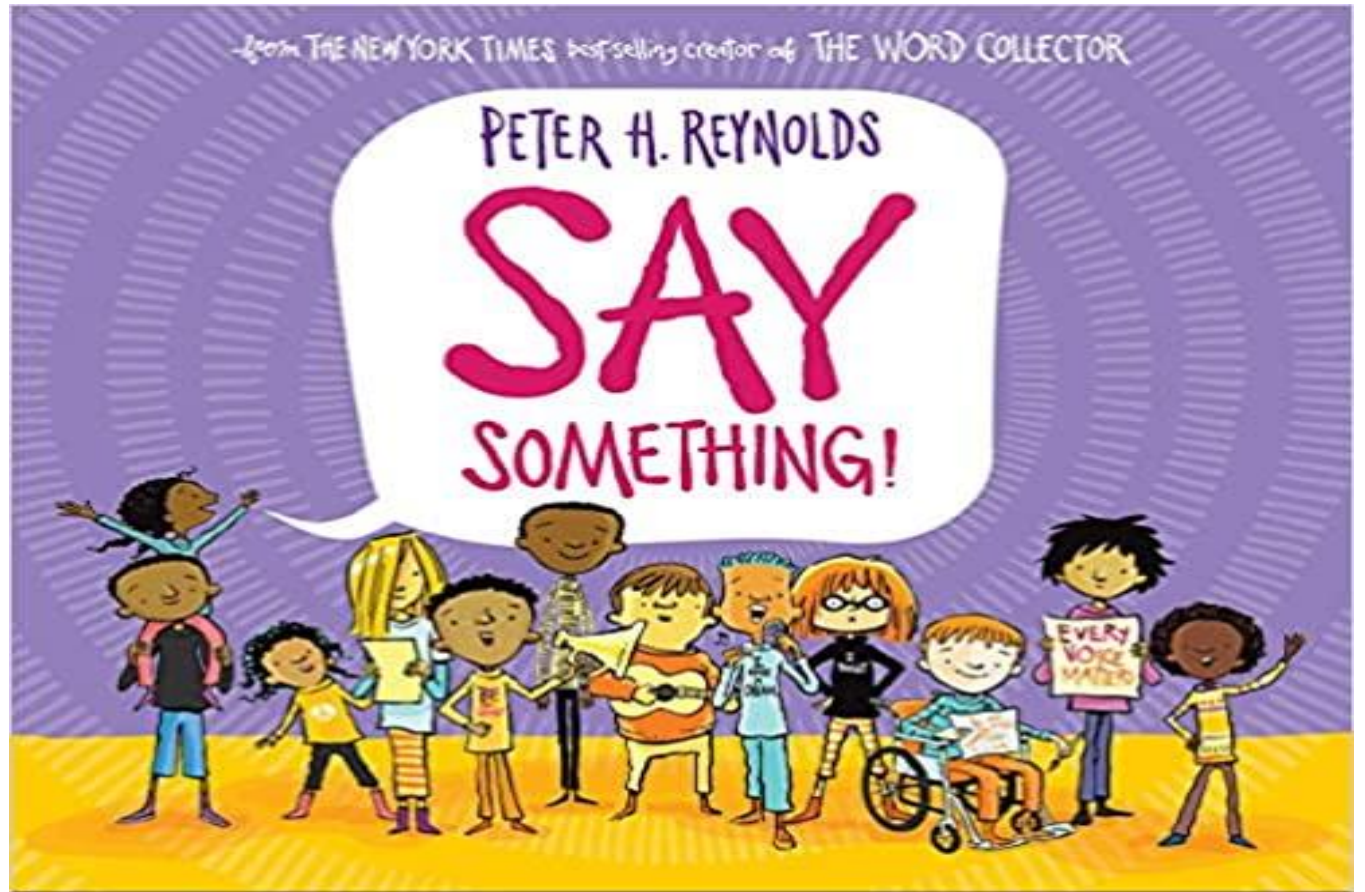

I Believe I Can

November

Lets all kids know that, no matter their background, they can love and believe in themselves.

December

Explores the many ways that a single voice can make a difference. Each of us, each and every day, have the chance to say something: with our actions, our words, and our voices.

January

A charming Chinese folktale that ends with a telling of the Legend of the Moon Fairy and directions to make a Chinese lantern.

February

A creative read to address and celebrate diversity among young children.

March

This book features 13 women throughout history and today who persevered in the face of adversity. It encourages your child to keep striving for your dreams and to speak up.

April

In this story, told from a sister's point of view, we meet a family whose oldest son teaches them important lessons about togetherness, hope, tolerance, and love.

May

When the character gets teased and taunted at school about her unruly hair, she turns to her neighbor for comfort and help. To help learn to care for her hair — and appreciate herself — her friend uses the metaphor of her lush garden to show her the many kinds of beauty and all the nurturing they require.

June

This book welcomes readers to experience a celebration and share in a day when we are all united.